GERMAN COMMISSION LEAVES SPA FOR BERLIN TODAY

GERMAN CHANCELLOR
PLOTTED AGAINST U.S.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 27.—A study of the official statement containing a translation of the report from von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, to Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg in August, 1916, discloses the part that Bernstorff and the foreign office played in the German intrigues in the United States. Proof that money, used in intrigues, was paid with the acquiescence of the German chancellor, if not at his order, is contained in the report. The report gives further evidence of the use of von Skel and Dr. Heinrich Albert by the German government. It is disclosed that Albert had charge of the German money and Bernstorff wished to keep him in the United States.

NO SESSION
UNDER ANY CONDITION

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—In conference today with members of the Senate the president reiterated his decision not to call Congress in extraordinary session until he returned from France.

The administration leaders advised the president that they believed the Republicans were determined to defeat the Victory loan bill and thus force an early call of the new Congress.

Wilson, with emphatic gestures, told the Democratic leaders to tell the Republicans that they would be responsible for failure of the bill and that, regardless of their attitude, he would not call Congress until he returned.

J. S. AUSTIN DIES
ACUTE INDIGESTION

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.—James S. Austin, president of the Tonopah Mining company, died suddenly of acute indigestion at this home in Ardmore, Penn., today.

James S. Austin leaves two sons and one daughter, who lost their mother two years ago. He was president of the Tonopah Mining company for the last twelve years and since the organization of the various subsidiary companies he has presided over their deliberations and acted as chief executive. It was the custom of the deceased to visit Tonopah and Wonder every year and is well known by every one who has had anything to do with the mining industry. On the occasion of his last visit to Tonopah, in company with Charles R. Miller, former governor of Delaware, and J. Harvey White, vice-president and general counsel, the deal for possession of the Monitor Belmont was closed. This mine is now operated by the Nevada Wonder Mining company, composed of virtually the same stockholders as the parent corporation of Tonopah. He is survived by one brother, Richard Austin, one of the leading Bankers of Philadelphia and widely known in eastern financial circles as one of the governors of the federal reserve bank of that district.

The dead president was one of the most approachable men to be found in the mining industry and it was due to his remarkable foresight the plan of perpetuating the name of the company by using surplus funds for buying other properties. Last year the deceased completed a tour of the entire holdings of his company, taking in Nicaragua, Colorado and Manitoba, almost on the shores of Hudson Bay.

President Wilson will not call an extra session of Congress until after his return from Europe.

Senator Martin of Virginia Democratic leader in the Senate made this announcement after a conference with the president. While the president did not state when he expected to reach home after his second trip overseas, Senator Martin gave it as his personal opinion that it would not likely be earlier than June 1.

President Wilson was said to feel it his duty to remain in Europe until the treaty of peace was concluded.

The president said he would return to Paris immediately after March 4, and was positive that he would not call an extraordinary session of Congress until he returned.

Senator Martin said: "He did not state the date of his return, nor did he authorize me to quote him in respect to that point, but my personal opinion and judgment is that there is no reasonable expectation of his being back prior to June 1."
